Course Framework

Course Title Grade Level Semesters Prerequisites	US Government 11, 12 1 None
Course Description	This one-semester course promotes an understanding of the political world and public policy while preparing young adults for the demands of democratic government. This course covers the context, structure, and process of American politics, as well as familiarizing students with the components of local and state governments. The course promotes the understanding of both the United States Constitution and Illinois Constitution and fulfills the state requirements for both.
